NEW AND THRILLING BOOK.

The Last Ninety Days of The War

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

BY CORNELIA PHILLIPS SPENCER.

Edited by Rev. Dr. Deems.

A Portion of this Book appeared in numbers of The Watchman, and attracted great attention in this country and Europe.

Re-written, enlarged with many most important additions, these chapters appear in a handsome volume. The very last acts of the war occurred in North Carolina; the writer was in the midst of them. Moreover, she has had access to the private papers of LEADING ACTORS, and to other sources of information.

No war-book which has yet appeared equals this book in fidelity to truth and in graphic and picturesque description. Nowhere else can the important information in this volume be obtained.

It ought to be in the hands of every one who desires to know how the war was really carried on.

It is a handsome 12mo. volume of 288 pages, elegantly printed, and well bound, and sent by mail, pre paid, for $1.50.

The usual deduction to the trade.

AGENTS wanted for this work everywhere and liberal commissions allowed. Apply for circular.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday Evening, Nov. 17, 1866.

Manufactories.

The spirit of our people, we rejoice to see, is reviving, and in various sections every effort is being put forth to press our industrial interests. Agriculture is, of course, the great interest.—We hope every available means will be employed, the coming year, to cultivate the largest possible crops of all kinds.

Special interest, we are glad to observe, is being felt in reviving the various manufactories already in existence and in getting up new ones. In several of our towns and cities this feeling is taking hold of our enterprising men and we hope it will be carried through in the right spirit.

Not only are the true interests of the State involved in the encouragement of a general manufacturing spirit among our people, but sound policy demands it. Why should others manufacture our material, when we can do it ourselves at less expense possibly than they can? It is perfectly plain, therefore, that every principle of prudent economy should prompt us to become our own manufacturers.

We are in possession of some highly interesting and important facts, which the projectors of manufactories should be in possession of, and which we will prepare and present to our readers in a few days.

The National Intelligencer observes that the Tennessee Legislature continues without a quorum. This is what comes of undertaking to carry on government by a mere fraction of the people of a State.

Under the intolerant laws established by Brownlow and his coadjutors, the vast mass of the people are excluded from the polls. The result is that the elections are farces and the whole government a sham. Hence men elected to the Legislature feel that they have no authority to be there; that they represent nobody; that they are mere pretences; and they are remiss in attention to their legislative duties, and so there is no quorum.

The people have no respect for such a legislative body, which represents nothing but party despotism and prejudice, and in no manner represents the sentiment of the people.

These miserable rump legislatures are failures and humbugs, and should be abandoned. If we pretend to have republican government we ought to have it, and not a burlesque and travesty upon it.

We hope soon to see a true, genuine Legislature in Tennessee, and not such a body as now professes to be such, but which is as far removed from it as possible.

Impudence is sometimes so excessive as to be positively grand. In the case of Holden, it is something really to be admired. For a man, who labored for years to bring on war and secession, to prate about Unionism, and for a man, who, after having been the recipient of President Johnson's confidence and favor, and turned his back upon him and deserted him, to claim now to speak for him, argues a degree of effrontery that would be sublime, if it were not so utterly shameless and disgusting.

"We are quite content with our record. As to history, we have as fixed place in it as any."—Standard.

"History" will do you ample justice, beyond all doubt. Says the counsel to a guilty Hibernian client: "Be not alarmed; you shall have full justice." Arrah," replied the culprit, "and it's justice that I'm afraid of, meself!"

Others, as well as yourself, have a "fixed place" in history. Satan, himself, is a very historical character.

Pardons.

Warrants of pardon have been received at the Executive Office for the following persons, who can obtain them by personal application or by written Attorney:

G. W. Long, Alexander County; Jesse Edwards, Anson; J. B. Fitzgerald, Davidson; Cornelius McMillan, Duplin; J. J. Ormand, Greene; J. J. Wheeler, Hertford; Dillard L. Love, Jackson; S. E. Loftin, Lenoir; Dillard Love, Macon; L. W. Hall, Orange; Jno. L. Hinton, Pasquotank; James Flanekin, Pitt.

George Peabody's Gifts.—The Richmond Enquirer, in chronicling additional gifts from George Peabody to Northern institutions of learning, justly says that not a dollar has been yet sent South to help to rebuild or refit our colleges and academies, burnt down or pillaged by the Federal armies. It hopes Mr. Peabody, and others of like means and liberalities, will cast their eyes in this direction while dispensing their aids for the benefit of the rising and the coming generations.

Georgia Stay-Law.—The Senate has passed a bill extending the time, under the relief act, for the payment of the first instal ment of one fourth of debts to the 1st of January, 1868, and to apply the benefits of the stay-law to all judgments on claims incurred up to the 1st of January, 1866.

With a Conservative Legislature, and a full Conservative delegation in Congress, a new future opens upon Baltimore and Maryland. The Registry law, by which thousands have been disfranchised, can now be wiped from the statute book, and the stain obliterated from the escutcheon of the State.

The members of the Legislature are arriving rapidly. Quite a large number are already in the city, and there will doubtless be a quorum of both Houses present on Monday morning.

Members of the Legislature, who desire the Sentinel during the session, will please give us early notice and inform us of their wishes as to where it shall be sent.

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit me to correct what I believe will be an erroneous impression, not designed, made by your article of the 13th. inst., on the Public Schools. Looking to the vindication of the last Legislature, your views are more one-sided than you suppose; and while I cheerfully acquit you of such a purpose, the editorial in question would seem like an argument to prove the impossibility of educating the poorer children of the State.

You estimate the cost of 1780 Common Schools, for 6 months, at $534,000. Now, before the war, the highest cost of 3100 Schools, attended by over 100,000 children, never exceeded $375,000; and the average cost of the system was hardly $300,000, and the average amount of taxes, for school purposes, not $150,000. This was for a system embracing an average of 2500 to 2800 schools, and attended by an average of fully 90,000 pupils. You suppose the schools ought to be kept open six months in the year, while experience proved that four months, for an average, were sufficient to accomplish much good, and that a majority of parents could not spare the children from work for half the year, as a regular thing.

According to former experience, therefore, 1780 schools ought not to cost more than about $200,000; and if $75,000 of this were paid from the general fund, only $125,000 would have to be collected by taxation. This, Messrs. Editors, is a fair calculation; but to be fully appreciated it must be taken in connection with other statistics.

1780 schools ought to educate 60,000 children, and to instruct those by subscription schools will cost at least $600,000. Now, if the people cannot pay $125,000 per annum, how are they to raise $600.000 or nearly 5 times that sum?

The inevitable inference from your article is that 1780 Schools, that ought to be taught, will have to be closed; and that 60.000 children, poor white children of North Carolina, must grow up in ignorance. If this be so, why protest against their emigration? Why ask the orphans of those who fell into nameless graves during the late war, at the command of the State, to remain where they must grow up in hopeless inferiority to a few thousand who can attend institutions munificently endowed by the State, and by Religious Societies? I protest against all such ideas.

C. H. W.

The author of the above is better acquainted with the statistics of the public Schools than any man in the State. Our object was to draw out all of the facts in regard to the subject, and not by any means to discourage the enterprise. We are anxious that when the Schools are revived, they shall be put upon such a basis as will unite the entire people in their active support. The only way to do this, is to spread before them all the facts. We think some of the calculations of our correspondent cannot apply to our present circumstances. All we desire is that whatever is done shall be done wisely and safely. We shall readily acquiesce in whatever may be done by the Legislature.

The Position of President Johnson.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, under date of November 14th, writes as follows to that paper:

The following is a portion of a communication addressed by a member of the Cabinet to a friend of the Administration in New England, in relation to the position of the President and his attitude towards Congress. The writer says: "Notwithstanding his long public career, few men seem to be less understood than President Johnson. That he is a man of strong convictions and earnest purposes is evident from the manner in which he advocated and pushed forward important measures in Congress, like the homestead bill, and the stand he took against secession and in favor of the Government during the late civil war. He believes that the manner in which he proposed that the government should deal with the Southern States was not only a magnanimous one, but the only one likely to result in a speedy and hearty reconciliation between the two sections; and he has felt it to be his duty to sustain his views by the exercise of such powers as the Constitution had clothed him with. But while this has been, and will continue to be, his course, he will violate no law nor fail to perform the duties which are legally devolved upon him. He will veto every bill that he may regard unconstitutional, no matter how unpopular it may be for him to do so. But he will execute, with unscrupulous fidelity, all laws, and especially those to which he has declined to give his official sanction.

"The apprehension which you seem to feel, and which many others share with you, that Mr. Johnson will attempt to force Southern representatives into Congress, or do any other imprudent thing by which the public peace will be disturbed, is entirely unfounded. While he will exercise fearlessly the power which he possesses under the Constitution in furtherance of the measures which he thinks are best calculated to promote the public weal, he will not quarrel with Congress for pursuing the same independent course. He regrets the disagreement between the legislative and executive branches of the Government, and would, I doubt not, yield much to effect a reconciliation. He will not, however, sacrifice his principles, nor violate the Constitution according to his interpretation of it, no matter what pressure is brought to bear upon him. He means to do right, as he understands the right, and will trust to time for the vindication of his course. He will be as true to the Constitution and the Government as President of the United States as he was true and steadfast to the Union in the darkest days of its trials."

Alabama—Meeting of the Legislature—Governor's Message.

The Legislature met at Montgomery on the 13th inst. The message of Gov. Parson recommends, as a relief for debtors, a law under which the creditor can collect annually the interest and a portion of the principal of his claim, and argues that nothing is more definitely settled than that a State has the right to regulate the proceedings of its own courts in regard to the enforcement of contracts. Remedies for this purpose may be made applicable to past contracts as well as those of the future.—He further says that it would be as competent for the Legislature to prohibit a preferred and exclusive lien under a judgment, as it would be to prohibit a preference in the assignment of property for the benefit of a single creditor.

BEHAVIOR AND TROUBLES OF THE FREEDMEN.

He is of the opinion that the freedmen generally are entitled to credit for good behavior. In referring to contracts with them, he says there have been some exceptional instances of bad faith, which are strongly suggestive of the necessity of legal remedy. These exceptions are where employers of freedmen have, by captious unreasonableness, sought and even created pretexts for finding fault with their employees, and discharging them without their pay, alleging a violation of contract on the part of the freedmen. The only remedy left the freedman is suit for his wages, and this is so tardy as to be scarcely worth pushing. He is pleased with the experiment of admitting colored testimony, and recommends a removal of all restrictions in that particular. He also recommends that a portion of the poll or capitation tax collected from freedmen be appropriated for the education of colored children.

THE AMENDMENT OPPOSED.

Regarding the Constitutional Amendment, he opposes the first section because it gives enlarged judicial powers to the General Government, such as would not only overshadow and weaken the authority and influence of the State Courts, but might possibly reduce them to a complete nullity. It would give to the United States Courts complete and unlimited jurisdiction over every conceivable case, however important or however trivial, which could arise under State laws. Every individual dissatisfied with the decision of a State Court might apply to a Federal tribunal for redress. It matters not what might be the character of his case—it might be civil or criminal, it might be a simple action of debt or a suit in trover, it might be an indictment for assault and battery, for larceny, for burglary, for arson, or for murder, it would be all the same; upon a simple complaint that his rights either of person or property had been infringed, it would be the bounden duty of the tribunal to which he made his application to hear and determine his case.—The granting of such an immense power as this over the State tribunal would, at the very best, subordinate them to a condition of comparative unimportance and insignificance, and might prove utterly destructive of that full security for the enjoyment of all the legal rights of property and those effective guarantees against arbitrary oppression which the people have found in our present judicial system ever since the organization of the Government. In opposing the second section, he uses the favorite argument of this section, that it is unjust in its operation against the South, because it decreases it representation in Congress, and does not affect the North similarly. He says that the third section establishes a test of eligibility for office, both Federal and State, which is not only unnecessary and unjustly proscriptive, but which might possibly lead to the most ruinous consequences. Experience has demonstrated incontestibly that the interest of the Government does not require such a rigid and discriminative test. The officials chosen since the war to conduct the operations of the non-represented States have had numerous and embarrassing difficulties to contend with; but, amidst all these discouraging embarrassments, they have firmly and faithfully discharged their public duties, in strict harmony with the Constitution and laws of the United States. They, as well as the people for whom they act, fully recognize their indissoluble identity with the Union, and are earnestly and honestly laboring to maintain it in its constitutional integrity. All these facts show that the people may be very safely allowed the untrammeled privilege of choosing their own agents from among those who are eligible to positions of public trust under the Constitution as it now stands. The people of the States, which are now denied representation in Congress, would not murmur at any standard of patriotism or test of loyalty to the General Government which might be applied to their professions and conduct since the close of the war. If punishments are to be inflicted for preceding conduct, surely the pains and penalties proscribed by the laws now standing upon the national statute book are amply sufficient for the purpose. They are certainly rigorous enough to accomplish all legitimate purposes of any Government controlled by true statesmanship. If the disabilities imposed by this third section be intended as a punishment for the acts heretofore committed, the amendment would operate practically as an ex post facto law, which is contrary to the whole spirit of modern civilization. The creation of a penalty to be imposed as a punishment for an act, after that particular act has been committed, is a thing unknown in the history of enlightened liberty. Such a mode of dealing with citizens charged with offences against Government belongs only to despotic tyrants. It may accomplish revengeful purposes, but it is not the proper mode of administering justice. The adoption of this amendment would vacate nearly all the offices in most of the unrepresented States. It would summarily and ruthlessly sweep away Governors, Judges, Legislatures, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace and Constables, and thus the State Governments would be completely broken up; indeed, they would be reduced to utter and hopeless anarchy, as the destroyed States could leave behind them no authortative provision for the re-establishment of governmental order.—The great mass of the people in the non-represented States are now practically excluded from all Federal offices by a stringent test-oath which was placed upon the statute book while the war was raging. We have high official authority for saying that the disabilities imposed by the test-oath are seriously detrimental to the interest of the government in some of its important branches.

Communications to this effect were addressed to Congress at its recent session by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General, and that body was appealed to for relief. There is no difficulty in finding men whose present loyalty is undoubted, and who would make efficient Revenue Collectors and Postmasters, but the inexorable test oath is so broad and sweeping that the Government is deprived of their services. It was clearly in the power of Congress to grant the relief asked for by a majority vote, but I am not aware it was done in a single instance. This proposed third section would not only add greatly to the disabilities of the test-oath, but it would abridge the relieving power of Congress by requiring a vote of two-thirds instead of a majority.

After reviewing the whole subject, the Governor says: "I am decidedly of the opinion that this amendment should not be ratified.—The first section embodies a principle dangerous to the liberties of the people of the whole country, and is as applicable to New York and Massachusetts as Alabama. The third section would bring no possible good to the represented States, while it would reduce the unrepresented to utter anarchy and ruin. We are sincerely desirous of complete restoration to the Union. We want conciliation, harmony and national tranquility. We feel we have given every evidence of honest purpose to conform in good faith to the condition of things surrounding us.

"Alabama is as true to-day to the Constitution and laws of the general government as any State of the Union. Under the internal revenue law tax on cotton, the people of this State are now paying a revenue to the government of nearly $10,000,000 a year. In the enactment of these laws we had no voice. The amendment was proposed when nearly one-third of the States were unrepresented, and all its features are aimed at the States thus excluded. The ratification of such an amendment, under such circumstances, cannot accomplish any good to the country, and might bring irretrievable disaster."

LINWOOD, AND RICH JERSEY LANDS, FOR SALE!

Losses of property and my sons, with a desire to close business and pay my debts, has induced me to convey, by Deed in Trust, all my property to Alfred Hargrave, of Lexington, North Carolina, which will be sold by him, and conveyances made, on Tuesday, the 11th. of December, 1866, at Linwood first, and Lexington next, from day to day until all is sold, consisting of the following property:

Linwood, Consisting of 1,649 Acres.

This celebrated tract will be divided into a number of ones, suiting large or smaller purchasers, including a valuable Flouring Mill, a comfortable roomy Cottage, Servant's Houses, Barns, Shops, with wells and springs of excellent water. The natural fertility of these land is unsurpassed even in the famed 'Jersey Settlement," in the heart of which they are located. They lie on both sides of the North Carolina Railroad, 7 miles from Lexington, and 11 from Salisbury, N. C. These lands are bounded by the Yadkin River, and run north and east covering Swearing Creek, and north and south Pott's Creek; have been ditched, drained and under-drained at much expense; have nearly five hundred acres of woodland, in heavy, original forest growth, equally distributed on different parts of the estate, and sufficient for farming purposes, not an acre but what is well situated for cultivation, or the raising of grass. There are now on them fine mowing and grazing lots and fields, with woodland pastures. In all these particulars constituting one of the most desirable and healthy estates in the South. It is enough to say for it, that it is the best and most valuable estate in the famed "Jersey Settlement" and has been under a state of improvement for forty years. Cotton, Wheat and Corn have been the staple products, but there are now large fields in a condition to produce the best yield and quality of shipping Tobacco, drained and cleared of stumps and stones, easily to be broken and ridged into ground for tobacco hills.
Also, a tract of two hundred Acres of Woodland, in original forest growth, of Oak, Hickory and Yellow Pine, 2½ miles from Lexington, and 2½ miles from a Saw Mill on Abbott's Creek, and known as the Garner Place.
Also, 81 Acres—the TRENTHAM PLACE—constituting a part and adjoining the town of Lexington. Highly improved land.
Also, my interest in the Houses and Lots on which I live, in all nine acres, on which is a Fine Mansion House and improvements.
Also, the Celebrated Blooded Stallion, MEDLEY, drives well in harness. A match of superior blooded Carriage Horses, kind in harness. A superior Blooded Gelding, 4 years old. Two Blooded Brood Mares, one with a Colt. One Buggy Horse. Twenty first-class Mules, and two Jennies. Also a fine Blooded Filly, going on four years old.

ROANOKE

LAND FOR SALE.

As Attorney, I shall sell, on the premises, for Cash,

ON THE 26TH. DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1866,

At Public Auction, to the highest bidder, the celebrated plantation of

MR. T. P. BURGWYN, KNOWN AS

ALVESTON,

CONTAINING

1,200 Acres, More or Less,

lying in Occoneechie Neck, Northampton county, North Carolina.
This is one of the most beautiful plantations in the whole country, and is surpassed in fertility and productiveness by none in North Carolina. Most of it is high table land, a red soil, cleared and in a high state of cultivation. It is admirably adapted to the production of COTTON, WHEAT, & INDIAN CORN.

It is well stocked with negro laborers, the former slaves of the estate, who are attached to the place, and can be easily induced to remain by a prudent purchaser. It also has on it several very good white tenants,—good and honest farmers—and is in much demand by this class of tenants. The Barns and Laborers' Houses are very good.

THE MANSION HOUSE

is sufficiently good. It is situated on the Roanoke river, below the head of navigation, and in the immediate neighborhood of four railroads leading to Norfolk, Petersburg, Wilmington, and Raleigh.
A plantation of equal value has not been offered for sale in Northampton within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.
W. W. PEEBLES,
Nov 15-tds Attorney, &c., Jackson, N. C.

THE GOLDSBORO' TOURNAMENT, which came off on the 15th., was quite a brilliant success.—It is estimated that no less than two thousand persons were present. Maj. Dunham, of the Wilson Carolinian, delivered an eloquent address to the Knights. The Knight of the "Southern Star," Mr. O. H. Worrell, being victor, selected the "Queen of Beauty." The Knights of the "Red and White," (Emmit Robinson,) "White Horse," (Fab Sasser,) "Black Plume," (Geo. Green,) and "N. C. Gray, Green co.; John P. Branch, Petersburg; E. D. Hampton, H. Adams, Lexington; Jos. A. Engelhard, Wilmington; A. C. Latham, Newbern; Geo. W. Whitfield, Shelby; John B. Williams, Warren; C. P. Cardozo, Norfolk; S. E. Seymore and wife, F. A. Babcock, Geo. F. Hill, N. Y.; F. S. Anthony and family, Petersburg; Frank S. Anderson, Rev. H. H. Reid, S. C.; D. R. Coleman, Concord.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

The official and unofficial returns from the whole State of Maryland for Comptroller, the only officer voted for throughout the State at the late election, are given as follows: Leonard, Conservative, 35,757; Bruce, Radical, 32,861.

The Chicago Times, heretofore strongly Democratic, has made a political somersault, and now favors negro suffrage, and opposes the administration of President Johnson. The change creates some sensation in Chicago and in Illinois.

The Boston Post says: "Bennett, who bought Barnum's lease, attempts to give Secretary M'Culloch lessons in Finance; and Greeley, who hid in a restaurant during the New York riots, doubts the courage of the President."

J. A. Bingham, of Ohio, it is said, in Washington, is preparing articles of impeachment against the President, in which he will charge him with complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln.

Amnesty to Insurgents.

The Atlantic telegraph informs us that the Turkish authorities have granted a general amnesty to the Cretan insurgents. We imagine that there is not a generous heart in all the earth but will not hear this announcement with delight and pleasure. The human heart, where it is not distorted by passion, delights in mercy. Even General Butler and Mr. Thaddeus Stevens will hear this news with gratification.

But it is curious that while everybody assents so readily to pardoning other people's rebels, all are not so willing to pardon their own rebels. The English appeal to the United States in reference to the Southern insurgents, and Mr. Seward makes his appeal for mercy in behalf of the Fenians.

What every one is so anxious to see done, where they are not personally prejudiced on the subject, must be founded in wisdom.

Indeed, if history proves anything with its famous philosophy teaching by example, it is that conciliation is a great power in curing political discontent. It has required a long time of stupid misrule, with infinite evils, for England to commence to learn this lesson in reference to Ireland. In the same vindictive spirit which General Butler, and men of his class, manifest towards the South, England has governed Ireland, or rather misgoverned her, for long years. It was a long time before public sentiment in England became sufficiently rational and magnanimous to do anything looking to justice to Ireland. During all this time Ireland was a burden on England. It was only when a more enlightened and generous policy was resorted to by England that the Irish connection began to be a real benefit to England.

And yet there are a certain class of men among the Radical leaders who wish to repeat in this country the English policy to Ireland.—These men, either from a narrow range of mind, which does not permit them to grasp the great matters involved in the pacification of the South, or because they seek popularity by pandering to the meanest interests of men, think all statesmanship consists in denouncing rebels and eternally trampling upon the South.

For our part, we wish to abolish Southern sectionalism by nationalizing it. We wish to plant the foundations of the Government South in the affections of the people, and have one united, universal, grand country.

We hope that in the spirit of true peace a general amnesty may be proclaimed to all persons involved in our rebellion.

We have always prided ourselves on that character of Christianity, which inculcates universal love; and yet the Turkish Government, with no higher source of inspiration to draw its morals from than the Koran, in the very fever of the blood, while the insurrection is on hand, proclaims universal forgiveness, and we refuse to exercise this noble prerogative of forgiveness to our erring brothers of the South, though it will be soon two years since the last gun was fired in our melancholy war.—National Intelligencer.

Frightful Railroad Accident.

ERIE, PENN., November 18.—One of the most terrible railroad accidents which has ever occurred in this section of the country, took place on the Buffalo and Erie railroad this afternoon, at about 4 o'clock.

A gang of workmen had been employed in repairing the track about a mile east of Westville, and had removed two rails in so doing.

Although fully aware that the New York express train was due, they took no precaution to warn the train, which came on at the speed of 30 miles per hour on the down grade. When within a few rods one of the workmen ran back and swung his hat, but was either unperceived by the engineer or it was too late. The next moment the engine struck the track, and the engineer, who took in the situation at the same instant, reversed the locomotive.

The train was instantly thrown from the track down the embankment, a distance of some 10 or 15 feet, breaking some of the cars into splinters, and piling them with the passengers into a confused heap. For a time the excitement was so great that very little help was rendered. The cries of the wounded and the certainty that some had been killed outright seemed to momentarily benumb the faculties of those who had escaped without injury.

After a short time of indecision, the passengers who were able, together with the workmen, applied themselves to the work of removing the debris and rescuing those who were buried beneath it.

Four dead bodies were taken from the wreck—three men and a child. The child's mother was also taken out so severely injured that there is no probability of her surviving. Some forty or fifty, perhaps more, were wounded, most of them slightly.

THE PRESIDENT STILL FIRM.—Dr. John W. Leftwitch, of Tennessee, who represents the Memphis District in Congress, and who is now at Washington, has addressed a letter to his constituents, in which he says that, in spite of the recent Radical successes at the North, and the dark complexion of the next Congress, the President is still as firm in the belief of the final success of his policy of restoration as he is that it is the only Constitutional and available method by which the States can be restored to their former unity and prosperity.

The bark Everhard, from Bremen, with 170 German emigrants, has arrived. They intend settling in South Carolina, being mostly connected with families already residing there.

One of the editors of the Louisville Courier has been to Brazil, got naturalized, but is back home again. He says the "South, poor, ruined, and desolate as she is, is worth a hundred Brazils yet."

The Commissioner of Agriculture, Hon. Isaac Newton, lies very seriously ill at Washington, having been confined to his room several weeks. Of late no progress toward his recovery has been made.

The bill making habitual drunkenness a sufficient cause for a divorce, has passed the Vermont Legislature, 13 to 11, with an amendment requiring that the drunkenness must be of two years' duration, previous to the finding of the libel.

The Governor of Florida is very ill.

Count Joannes has sued a New Yorker for libel.

Beauregard says the needle-gun is a great humbug.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

The following was telegraphed to the New York Times by its special correspondent from this city:

"Chief Justice Chase called at the White House this evening, and was closeted with the President for about an hour. Before his departure, Mr. Seward, Gov. Randall, Mr. McCulloch and Mr. Browning arrived, and remained in consultation with the President until 10 o'clock. It is believed that this meeting was for consultation upon a most important subject, based upon an effort now making by the leading men of all parties, to induce the President, in consideration of a general amnesty, to advise the people of the South to accept universal suffrage, with a qualification either of property or intelligence. Prominent Southern men are co-operating with Republicans and Democrats in this effort."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

W. R. MILLER,
Nov. 2—td Agent of Legatees.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my Burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured one of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of
